Some one has remarked that it is possible to misuse the gift of poetry. There is poetry worked into the cutting of precious stones, the shaping of pins, the settings of rings, the carvings on silver vanity cases, cigarette holders, etc., at Schmiedt's. It is poetry that cannot be misused as Christmas gifts.

BAKER IS KILLED BY FIRE WAGON

Confusion of Alfred Bridenbecker and Truck Driver Causes Accident.

WAS UNION VETERAN

Was Robbed of $8,400 When He Came to Washington to Reside.

Alfred Bridenbecker, seventy-nine years old, former resident of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was killed in a traffic accident on Monroe street between 9th and 10th streets northeast, Brookland, shortly after 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the hose wagon of No. 17 engine company.

The wagon was responding to a false alarm sounded from Albert Hall, Catholic University, when it struck Mr. Bridenbecker. The elderly man had halted long enough to permit the engine to pass. He then started to cross the street, and James W. Becker, driver of the hose wagon, saw him in time to slow down. Bridenbecker halted about the time the driver brought the vehicle almost to a stop, but he made another start just as the vehicle also made another start ahead.

Drove Into Sidewalk.
In an effort to avoid an accident, Becker drove the hose wagon to the sidewalk. The pedestrian, it is stated, walked against the side of the wagon, was struck and knocked down. He was not unconscious when picked up and taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital by E. B. McIntyre, 1406 Newton street northeast. The injured man later was transferred to Emergency Hospital, where he died at 8:35 o'clock, his death resulting from a fracture of the skull.

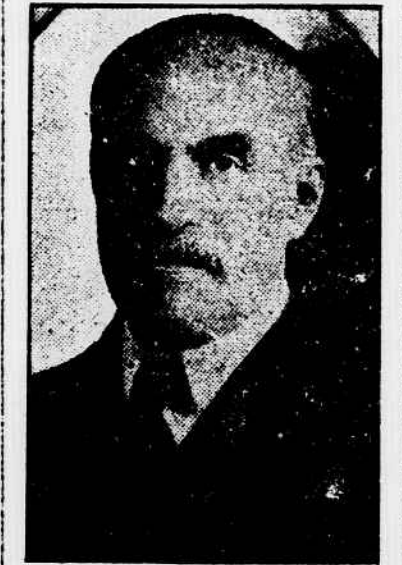

The deceased was a native of Alsace-Lorraine, but had resided in this country since he was a young man. During the civil war he baked bread in this city for the Army of the Potomac, later going to Poughkeepsie, where he engaged in the bakery business. Several years ago he disposed of his real estate in Poughkeepsie and came to this city, being robbed of $8,400 carried in an envelope in his pocket while on a train.

Residing in this city, it is stated, he registered at the New Willard. Later he spent three weeks in the Takoma Park Sanatorium. It was without funds when he left the sanatorium, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Haller of Michigan avenue, Brookland, were first to befriend him. It was through their assistance that he was admitted to the House for the Aged conducted by the Little Sisters of the Poor. Tiring of institutional life, he left there several months ago, and recently was given an attic room at the place of business of Mr. Bouham, 703 Michigan avenue.

Police of the tenth precinct investigated the accident and reported the result of their investigation to Corporal Nevitt, who arranged to hold an inquest at the mortuary this afternoon. The coroner today took charge of the personal effects of the deceased.

JAMES A. ALLEN, CIVIL WAR VETERAN, DEAD

Succumbs to Attack of Heart Trouble at Home of His Son.

JAMES A. ALLEN.

James Alexander Allen, a veteran of the civil war, eighty-four years old, died yesterday at the home of his son, F. A. Allen, 221 McKinley street, Chevy Chase, from an acute attack of heart trouble. The funeral services will be held at the home of his son tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Canon Austin of All Souls' Episcopal Church officiating. The interment will be in Arlington national cemetery, under the auspices of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R. with Tenth Post, No. 1, doing the military honors.

Mr. Allen was a native of Massachusetts. His ancestors were of revolutionary stock and served in the war of the revolution. At the opening of the civil war Mr. Allen enlisted. He came out of the war as a captain of infantry. He was in many of the major engagements of that war and was badly wounded in action at the first battle of Bull Run and at the Gettysburg fight. After the close of the civil war Mr. Allen was in the lumber business in North Carolina, and later went into the manufacture of gunpowder. He was one of the first experts in that line to manufacture smokeless powder. For many years he was a powder expert for the United States government. He retired from government service several years ago. Capt. Allen was a member of Rawlins Post No. 1, G. A. R., a past commander of that post, and for many years its adjutant. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Allen; two sons and three daughters.
